Candidates seeking admission to General Courses must have secured 45% in Aggregate (for SC or ST candidate the minimum aggregate required is 40%) and minimum 30% marks in the Subjects chosen as General Subjects.

Candidates who have passed H.S. or equivalent Examination not earlier than 2016 (i.e. passed in 2018, 2017 and 2016) are eligible to apply directly.

Candidates who have passed H.S. or equivalent Examination in the year 2015, remained unsuccessful in Part I Examination in 2017 (i.e. even after two attempts) under VU, but intend to get admission as a fresh candidate, would be required to enroll normally (by filling up the required information). An application, seeking Special Permission, is also required to be submitted to the Secretary, UG Council, Vidyasagar University, through Principal, JRC, to be received at the University and Special Permission is to be issued by the University on V.U. specified dates.

Admission will be done on the basis of Merit. Merit Index will be calculated as given below:

MERIT INDEX:

% MARKS OF THE SUBJECT CHOSEN AS HONOURS OR EQUIVALENT +

10% OF AGGREGATE (OF BEST FIVE SUBJECTS)

- Marks in all subjects indicated in the HS/+2 level mark sheet must be entered in the application form.
- Absent in a subject is treated as 0 (zero) marks and hence makes a candidate ineligible.
